

IP Litigation Attorney

Barclay Damon LLP, a nearly 300-attorney law firm, with 33 practice offerings and eleven offices throughout New York State and the Northeast, is seeking an IP Litigation partner for its New York office, or Upstate New York offices, with seven or more years in trademark, copyright and unfair competition litigation experience. Prior experience must include some or all of the following: drafting preliminary injunction or summary judgment briefs, taking and defending expert depositions, and appearances in Court to argue substantive motions. The successful candidate will have a practice mostly dedicated to serving clients in the trademark and copyright area. Clients having needs in other service areas are welcome with the opportunity for cross-selling firm trademark and copyright services. It is not a requirement that the candidate be admitted to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (PTO), but it is required that he or she have their own book of business.

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit a resume, cover letter, transcript and writing sample in confidence to:
