

Location:

Tabner, Ryan & Keniry, LLP, Albany, New York

Description:

Position in a busy private practice firm with about ten lawyers. The focus will be civil matters in both state and federal courts. Deposition, appellate and trial experience is available as applicant qualifications may allow. Substantive areas of the law include school district and education law matters, administrative hearings, and personal injury work. This attorney will assist in matters from intake to trial. Very active pace with as much opportunity as applicant desires.

Excellent research and writing is mandatory. We prefer three to five years of significant experience. Desire to advance within the firm and the profession is encouraged.

Bonus compensation and salary will be determined by the strength of the applicant's qualifications and performance.
