

Location:

Tabner, Ryan & Keniry, LLP
Albany, New York 12211

Description:

Mid to senior level Associate or Counsel position in a busy private practice firm with about ten lawyers. The focus will be substantial commercial litigation work, including civil trials and arbitration. Very active pace and as much opportunity as applicant desires. Applicant must be self-motivated, inquisitive in developing both the facts and the law and be able to interact with an outstanding client base. Applicant must possess the highest professionalism and ethics. We prefer three to five years significant experience. Desire to advance within the firm and profession is encouraged. Bonus compensation and salary will be determined by the strength of the applicant's qualifications and performance.